

Find the correct pronoun

Underline the correct answer:

Do you often meet up with Joe and Kathi?

No, I don't see their/them/they very often, but their/them/they children visit us every year.

Olaf, this is Mr. Lawson. He/She/It/Him works for our/us/we company.

Can you drive he/him/his to he/him/his hotel, please?

Can your brother speak English?

Yes, him/his/her English is excellent.

Anita and I will have dinner at the restaurant on Saturday.

Can you meet our/we/us there?

Does Olaf like his/her/he job?

Yes, she/he/it likes him/it/he very much.

Do he/she/you and we/me/your friend live in Austria?

No, they/we/them live in Germany.

Can you/your/them mother speak French?

No, but he/her/she can speak Spanish and English.

Kathi, can I introduce you to Mr Flemming.

It/His/He is the specialist. He/His/Her will repair our/they/him computer.

Do you often visit he/your/this grandparents in Oslo?

No, not really. I only visit our/they/them 3 times a year.

Are them/they/us still healthy?

Yes, fortunately they/them/it are.

I can't remember him/our/us last meeting.

It must be a long time since I last met it/your/you.