

Personal Pronouns

1. Fill in: me - you - him - her - it - us - you

- You meet your mother in the supermarket.
- Take the dog for a walk.
- Dad calls my sister and me.
- You are allowed to go to the party with Mike.
- I see Anna playing in the garden.

her
it us him
her

2. Fill in the personal pronouns:

- You meet your girlfriend in the shop.
- I have breakfast with Susan and John every day.
- She watches mother and me preparing dinner.
- Put the rabbit outside.
- He puts his schoolbag under the desk.
- Mother drives her husband into town.
- She rides her bicycle to school every day.
- Peggy calls mother and me.
- You can go to the birthday party with Sarah.

her
them
us
it
it him
it us
her

Possessive Pronouns

3. Fill in: me - my - him - his - her - their

Princess Cornelia has a friend. His name is Frederick. Cornelia loves him and he loves her. She wants to marry him and he wants to marry her. But her father, the king, says she must marry the sun because it is the strongest.

Cornelia says to the sun: "My father says I must marry the strongest!" The sun answers: "The cloud is the strongest because it can hide me."

At the end of the story Cornelia and Frederick have a big party. All their friends come and everybody is happy because Cornelia and Frederick married.

4. Fill in: his - her - our - their

- Her friend Sarah likes stories very much (Christine's)
Tim and I love lasagne. It is our favourite food.
Where is his rubber? (Richard's)
Give me her exercise book, please. (Anna's)
His friend Lora is in my class. (Jimmy's)
Their books are under the desk. (Mike's and Peter's)

