English

was - were

- „Was/Were" are used to talk about events, facts or circumstances which have already passed.

- The word order used for the past tense is the same as for the present tense.

- For he/she/it/I   use   was / wasn´t

- For you/they/we   use   were /weren´t

Examples:

Present tense:	Past tense:
The house is in the centre.	The house was in the centre.
The weather isn´t good.	The weather wasn´t good.
We are in London.	We were in London.

Convert the following sentences from the present tense to the past tense:

She is in the house.

_____

They aren´t cooking their meal.

_____

I´m not reading a book.

_____

We are at home.

_____

You aren´t in the bar.

_____

Is the room clean?

_____

He isn´t working.

_____

The cat is in the tree.

_____

Toni is in love with Kathi.

_____

Toni and Kathi are in the living room.

_____

They are watching a film on TV.

_____

Anita is washing the dishes.

_____

The dog isn´t in the garden.

_____

We are in a small bar.

_____

You aren´t in your car.

_____

Is the weather fine in Vienna?

_____

Are they watching a good film?

_____

How long are you there?

_____

© Aduis